

Virginia Parents Bill of Rights

We the Parents of the Commonwealth of Virginia are the primary educators of our children. We unequivocally assert the following rights in the service of our sacred duty to raise our children in a manner that equips and prepares them for a future of engaged and honorable citizenship:

1. The right to make academic decisions for our children.
2. The right to make medical decisions for our children.
3. The right to a safe school environment for our children.
4. The right to schools free from ideological coercion and other forms of psychological abuse.
5. The right to full-time, in-person education for our children.
6. The right to a representative and responsive School Board.
7. The right to move our children to schools that recognize our rights.

Virginia Parents Bill of Rights

Detailed Summary

1. The right to make academic decisions for our children.

End Secret Lesson Plans: The lesson plan for every class session, in every grade of every school from pre-K to AP, shall be posted on a public website, to include teaching material, readings, handouts, activities, videos, and assignments. The materials shall be available with sufficient advance notice to allow for parents to meaningfully exercise their right to opt their child out of objectionable material.

End Curriculum Coercion: Parents shall have the right to opt their children out of any class, activity, lesson, reading, audio-visual material or access to a library book to which they object. Opted-out students may be excused from school grounds by parents or provided study hall or alternative activities in an open, common area in the school.

End Secret Libraries: An up-to-date list of the title and author of each book in each in-classroom library shall be posted on a public website for each school.

End Secret Teacher Training: All teacher and staff training at the public schools shall be noticed at least a week in advance, livestreamed, and the recordings made available on a public website for a period no less than 5 years

Detailed Summary

2. The right to make medical decisions for our children.

End Secret Medical Treatment: No medical item or service, including a drug, device, vaccine, diagnostic or screening test, implant, surgery, procedure, medical consultation, advice, referral or family planning service shall be provided to any student by a school or a school-sponsored or school-referred entity without prior parental consent.

End Secret Student Information: No information about a child, known to school staff, coaches or volunteers, shall be withheld in any way from a student's parent, including alternate names, sexual activity, orientation or identity, medical or mental health records, vaccination status, disciplinary records, or status as a victim of any crime or potential crime.

End Medical Coercion: Children shall not, as a condition of enrollment or in-person attendance in a public school or participation in an extracurricular activity, be required to receive a drug, test, vaccine, screening procedure, or use a medical device, including a face mask, if a parent objects on any of the following grounds: a) religious or moral (parent attestation), b) medical grounds (parent and health care provider attestation), or c) lack of an FDA approval as safe and effective for the child's age, sex, health status, or indication (parent and health care provider attestation).

Detailed Summary

3. The right to a safe school environment.

Right to Privacy: All students and staff shall have a right to intimate facilities corresponding to their biological sex, including bathrooms, locker rooms, and lodging on school-sponsored trips. Any student may use a single-user facility upon request if a school can reasonably accommodate such a request.

Fairness and Safety in Sports: No student shall be required, as a condition of participation, to compete with or against students of the opposite biological sex in a school-sponsored sports activity that is designated for boys or for girls.

End Secret Crimes: Notwithstanding § 22.1-279.3:1, all crimes perpetrated at a school against a child or by a child shall be reported immediately to law enforcement and to the parents of the children involved (including witnesses), including sexual assault, rape, other violent assault, drug dealing, or threats with deadly weapons.

Detailed Summary

4. The right to schools free from ideological coercion and other forms of psychological abuse.

End Speech Coercion: There shall be no requirement that students, parents, staff, coaches or volunteers use pronouns not corresponding to a student's biological sex, make statements relating to race, privilege, oppression, or bias, or refrain from participating in First Amendment protected activity in their personal capacities.

Racism is Immoral: No school or school-sponsored program shall train, teach, or promote the following to students or staff: that any race is inherently superior or inferior; that any individual is racist, privileged, oppressive, biased, or responsible for actions committed by others of the same race or skin color, by virtue of race or skin color; that the U.S. is fundamentally racist; or that market-based economies are inherently racist.

Segregation is Immoral: No student or staff affinity group shall exclude members on the basis of race, skin color, or national origin, nor shall a school establish certain rights, programs, spaces, or privileges exclusively for students of a certain race or skin color.

Parents Name Their Children: Children shall be called in school by the name(s) authorized by their parents.

Mutual Respect for All: All children and adults shall be treated with dignity and respect in the public schools, and bullying shall be addressed robustly.
